other via email. This is in addition to the %resident&s letter. With ' pril (nderhill&s help we will try to sort this out and communicate with old and new emeriti. It should be emphasi)ed to all members that our main means of communication will be email, so members should be encouraged to help us eep email addresses current. *or the present, since during the summer few large mailings are going out, we will send the email first and the hard copy letter as soon as we can. ' motion was considered, but it was decided simply to put together $ letters to both new and old members after the %resident does his mailing, since it has been usual practice for the %resident to welcome new emeriti, then the emeriti received our invitation to join and participate.

Things change from day to day, so e, tended discussions seem to change as well. ' t the time of this meeting, it seemed that there will be some continued change in modes of instruction and the
